

March 17, 2006

PRESS RELEASE

(For immediate release)

Contact: John Surso
Phone: 330.668.1254

Pointe West Performances presents That Pig, Morin!
by Jamie Hitel and S.J.M. Watson

Free workshop performance of the delightfully farcical adult musical comedy,
"That Pig, Morin!"

"That Pig, Morin!" is a new musical by Jamie Hitel and S.J.M. Watson, choreographed and directed by Suzanne Winland

Performance is Sunday, March 26, 2006 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 1361 W. Market St., Akron.

Visit our website at thatpigmorin.com for more information or call Pointe West Performances at 330.807.8064

"That Pig, Morin!" is based on a short story by Guy de Maupassant with contemporary music stylized to reflect this topsy-turvy nineteenth century French farce. Small-town draper Morin, returning from business in Paris, is accused of advances towards a young woman on a train. His home town's most eminent man (and most eligible bachelor), Alphonse Labarbe, intercedes on his behalf, and soon meets Morin's alleged victim, the delectable Henriette...

This is the eleventh anniversary season of Pointe West Performances. PWP has a strong history of community service and outreach. For more information, call the PWP office at 330.668.1254 or visit us online at www.pointewest.org.

###